

COUNSELING DISCOUNT REQUEST

K'nafayim, Inc. offers a special discounted rate of $20 per session to couples and families who are in need of counseling but who cannot otherwise afford it. This discount is available to community members upon submission of a confirmation from their local rav. Accepting this offer implies client consent to share with the rav only whether the clients are continuing with counseling or have terminated counseling (successfully or unsuccessfully). It further acts as consent to submit this form and dates of service to K'nafayim for the purposes of billing.

TERMS OF SERVICE

Please note that these services are offered for marriage and family counseling issues. Funds are not to be used for counseling services outside that scope, including but not limited to mental health counseling, personal coaching, stress management, and others, even as we recognize that all these issues may impact upon a person's marital and family relationships.

At the termination of your counseling you will be e-mailed a link to a survey about your experience. This survey will be kept completely anonymous – you will not be asked to input your name or personal information anywhere. It is purely for the purposes of learning how we can improve our services and for sharing with others the value of our work. While it is completely voluntary, we hope you will consider filling it out in order to help us achieve our mission.
